LUTHERAN CHURCH

about today's service

In today's gospel, the risen Christ appears to the disciples and offers them the gift of peace. Even amid doubts and questions, we experience the resurrection in our Sunday gathering around word and meal, and in our everyday lives. Throughout the coming Sundays of Easter, the first two readings will be from the Acts of the Apostles and the first letter of Peter. Even as the early Christians proclaimed the resurrection, we rejoice in the new birth and living hope we receive in baptism.

Welcome to Trinity Lutheran Church! Please sign the red Worship Witness booklet to record your attendance with us this day, and indicate how many are communing. Then pass the booklet to the worshipers beside you in your row. If you are a guest, name tags are available for you to wear---we would be delighted to greet you by name. Hearing assistance devices and large print bulletins are available from an usher.

First Reading

Acts 2:14a, 22-32

After the Holy Spirit came to the apostles on Pentecost, Peter preaches the gospel to the gathered crowd. He tells them that Jesus, who obediently went to his death according to God's plan, was raised from the dead by God. Finally, he appeals to scripture, quoting Psalm 16:8-11, to show that Jesus is the Messiah: though crucified, the risen Jesus is now enthroned.

^{14a}Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed [the crowd], ²²“You that are Israelites, listen to what I have to say: Jesus of Nazareth, a man attested to you by God with deeds of power, wonders, and signs that God did through him among you, as you yourselves know—²³this man, handed over to you according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of those outside the law. ²⁴But God raised him up, having freed him from death, because it was impossible for him to be held in its power. ²⁵For David says concerning him, ‘I saw the Lord always before me, for he is at my right hand so that I will not be shaken; ²⁶therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced; moreover my flesh will live in hope. ²⁷For you will not abandon my soul to Hades, or let your Holy One experience corruption. ²⁸You have made known to me the ways of life; you will make me full of gladness with your presence.’ ²⁹“Fellow Israelites, I may say to you confidently of our ancestor David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day. ³⁰Since he was a prophet, he knew that God had sworn with an oath to him that he would put one of his descendants on his throne. ³¹Foreseeing this, David spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, saying, ‘He was not abandoned to Hades, nor did his flesh experience corruption.’ ³²This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses.”

L: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

The assisting minister will sing the refrain, then the congregation will sing it.

P: Protect me, O God, for I take ref- | uge in you; * I have said to the Lord,
"You are my Lord, my good a- | bove all other."

C: All my delight is in the godly that are | in the land, * upon those who are noble a- | mong the people.

P: But those who run after | other gods * shall have their troubles | multiplied.

C: I will not pour out drink offerings | to such gods, * never take their names up- | on my lips.

Refrain:

P: O Lord, you are my portion | and my cup; * it is you who up- | hold my lot.

C: My boundaries enclose a | pleasant land; * indeed, I have a | rich inheritance.

P: I will bless the Lord who | gives me counsel; * my heart teaches me night | after night.

C: I have set the Lord al- | ways before me; * because God is at my right hand, I shall | not be shaken.

Refrain:

P: My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spir- | it rejoices; * my body also shall | rest in hope.

C: For you will not abandon me | to the grave, * nor let your holy one | see the pit.

P: You will show me the | path of life; * in your presence there is fullness of joy,
and in your right hand are pleasures for- | evermore.

Second Reading

1 Peter 1:3-9

This epistle was written to encourage Christians experiencing hardships and suffering because of their faith in Christ. The letter opens by blessing God for the living hope we have through Christ's resurrection even in the midst of difficult circumstances and surroundings.

³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, ⁵who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, ⁷so that the genuineness of your faith—being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire—may be found to result in praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. ⁸Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, ⁹for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

L: The word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Procession:

Turn to face the cross as it moves to the midst of God's people

Now all the vault of heaven resounds
In praise of love that still abounds:
Christ has triumphed, He is living!
Sing, choirs of angels, loud and clear!
Repeat your song of glory here:
Christ has triumphed, He is living!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

P: The holy gospel according to St. John, the 20th chapter.

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel Reading

John 20:19-31

The risen Jesus appears to his disciples, offering them a benediction, a commission, and the gift of the Holy Spirit. But one of their number is missing, and his unbelief prompts another visit from the Lord.

¹⁹When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." ²⁰After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. ²¹Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." ²²When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." ²⁴But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. ²⁵So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe." ²⁶A week later his disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." ²⁷Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." ²⁸Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" ²⁹Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." ³⁰Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. ³¹But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in his name.

P: The gospel of the Lord.

C: Praise to you, O Christ.

Sing as the procession returns:

Eternal is the gift He brings,
Therefore our heart with rapture sings:
Christ has triumphed, He is living!

Now still He comes to give us life
And by His presence stills all strife.
Christ has triumphed, He is living!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

(8:15) Hymn No. 635: We Walk by Faith

SHANTI

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the † resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Crown Him, the King of kings, the Lord of lords, the Prince of Peace.

Crown Him the One who died and rose again to live forevermore.

*Crown Him, the Bread of Life, High and holy priest, Bright and Morning Star,
He holds the keys of death. He holds the keys of hell.*

He is ruler of the kings of earth. Crown Him, behold your King!
 See Him coming with the clouds. Every eye shall see Him who they have pierced.
 See Him, who is the first and is the last, Alpha and Omega.
 He is the Living One. He who is and was and who is to come.
 He has loved us unto death. He has freed us by His blood.
 He is the mighty Son of God. Crown Him, behold your King.
 Behold Him! Behold the Lord of lords and King of kings. Crown Him!

(11:00) Anthem: "We Walk By Faith" Williams/arr. Sanborn

We walk by faith and not by sight. We trust in God and not in might.
 For in our darkness He is light. We walk by faith and not by sight.
 Sometimes trials come our way. We don't know what to do or say.
 But we know God will make a way if we will trust and obey.
 We trust in God and in His Son. What God has promised will be done.
 And as each journey is begun, His Holy Spirit makes us one.
 We may not fully understand, but we are guided by His hand.
 And as we follow faith's command, God leads us to the promised land.

Distribution of Holy Communion

We invite all baptized Christians to the Lord's Table to celebrate the real presence of Christ in the Sacrament. Communion is by intinction. You will receive a wafer. Dip it in the chalice of wine before consuming. You may then return to your seat or come to the altar rail for prayer. Children and adults who aren't communing may come forward to receive a blessing. As a gesture of hospitality, we use dealcoholized wine (less than .5% alcohol). In addition, we offer gluten-free wafers, available upon request – please ask at the time of communion.
