Tanzania Missionaries: A Fascinating Experience12:30 luncheon, Fellowship Hall

Hear Angela and Andrew Hammer talk about their missionary work in Tanzania. Trinity helped support the family and their three children. By now you should have signed up for the lunch; if not, you can still stop by and listen to the talk!

Did you read your letter? You should have received a letter at home from our Property Committee about our building security, including what's coming soon and the signs (at right) that you'll see. Our goal is to keep Trinity safe and secure while staying welcoming too.

Geraniums for Pentecost! Red flowers and candles will decorate our worship spaces for Pentecost on June 4. The Worship Team is accepting donations in the Gathering Space on May 21 and 28. Your gift of $5, $10, or $20 goes a long way toward planting these gorgeous flowers in our church gardens to brighten our grounds all summer long!

Once again, the Women of Trinity thank you for counting your blessings throughout the past eight months and for marking them with a donation to your Blessing Box.

Gathering Space Art Display. This specialized exhibit, "Collages and Assemblages," is presented by a group of women painters, many of whom have been painting together for many years in mostly watercolor and acrylics. Some of their experimental pieces have evolved into collage or assemblage art, all with original applications of drawing or technique which is both fun and challenging.

Our new mission statement!

United and empowered to worship, connect, serve

Congregation Council has approved this new mission statement. It was developed by our Leadership/Listening Team—Trinity's liaison with Kairos and Associates—after numerous meetings, extended discussion, and input from many. The statement summarizes our purpose as a unified congregation, empowered by our faith, to worship together, connect with one another, and serve God's people in the community and the world.
