Financial update

Heads up! Here's some important finance news

Each year, our budget is prepared by our volunteer teams and committees in support of Trinity's many ministries, and in consideration of the financial wherewithal required to fulfill them. Then we continuously monitor each program's spending to compare it with contributions received.

In recent years, we've had to curtail spending so that we would not incur a deficit at year end. This year, looking at the first four months, we seem to be in for more of the same.

Our general fund contributions—which fund our operating expenses—have fallen significantly. Specifically, contributions in the first four months of 2016 were $438,052. That's down from $443,244 in 2015, and from $466,707 in 2014.

Let's not wait until the end of the year to catch up to our needs. Let's respond now! Please support our teams and committees so that we can fulfill the ministries in our church and community.

In the meantime, thank you for the gifts you've given. Trinity does so much and helps so many—let's make sure we continue our work!

Letter from Pastor Horner

The month of perfect storms

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
It was a month of perfect storms.

The house Linda and I were renting was put on the market by the owner and we had to scramble to find another place to call home and begin the process of packing and moving. My wife marked the year anniversary of her mother's death. Our daughter Krista had college decisions, prom, and final preparations for graduation.

My mother, her physical condition compromised from five months of dialysis, ended up in the hospital and went through a very fast downturn. When I called her, I confessed to her that I didn't know what to say, I only wished I could hug her through the telephone lines. I made arrangements to visit.

Day by day her bodily systems began to fail. On an early Sunday morning, I learned there was nothing more that could be done.

It was time to pray and wait.

In between the services, I called my stepfather. The doctors were on their way to halt the medical treatment that was keeping my mom alive. The later worship service was probably the hardest one I've ever preached and presided at. I was overwhelmed with what I knew was happening in Florida with my mother and yet I was comforted by the words in the prayers, readings, and hymns that continued to celebrate Easter and resurrection.

When the service was over, I made my way to my office and saw the missed call from my stepfather. My mother had died.

I asked my stepfather what time she died and realized it was right around the time we would have been celebrating Holy Communion. In the traditional service, the pastor chants a "proper preface" that recognizes when we gather for communion we are joined in celebration with the "angels and archangels, and the whole company of heaven." My mother had joined the heavenly chorus that morning singing the praise of the One who claimed her in baptism.

When perfect storms come, and they will come, we are tested. Many of us spend time studying our faith and proclaiming that faith in worship. When the storms come, it's important to hold tightly to the promises we have been given. Like a life vest, they buoy us amidst the waves. Faith is lived out, every day in every situation that life brings to us. Remember the promises and your faith and know you are never alone.

My family and I are very thankful for the kind words and cards. We are comforted by your faith in the resurrection that you shared with us, and I am grateful to be your pastor.

Your servant in Christ,
Pastor Jack Horner

Practicing discipleship class

"Practicing Discipleship" is an adult learning opportunity scheduled for Sundays this summer, and you can attend whenever you want.

Join Pastor Easton at any or all of the seven Sundays from July 10 to August 21 at 9:30 am in room 237. We'll explore the book, Reclaiming the "L" Word: Renewing the Church from Its Lutheran Core, by Kelly Fryer. Together we'll consider Fryer's five principles for what it means to be Lutheran in the world—setting us free to follow Jesus, practicing our discipleship daily.

Books will be available for use in class. Or, to keep the book, contribute $7 in class or contact Pastor Easton to pick up a copy.

Baccalaureate service

A baccalaureate service celebrating the 2016 graduating class of Camp Hill High School will be held at 7 pm on Friday, June 3, in our Nave. Participating in this worship service will be Pastor Jack Horner. Sponsored by the churches of the Camp Hill Borough, this service is a well-loved and longstanding tradition. Students and their families, teachers, and administrators will gather for lessons, hymns, sermon, and prayers as the graduates embark on new adventures post-high school. You are cordially invited to attend.

Garden of Eatin' on break

From Memorial Day to Labor Day, snacks and treats in the Gathering Space are taking a summer break. But you'll still be able to enjoy our coffee and tea.

Congratulations to Marianne Brock!

Sister Marianne Brock, associate executive director of the Lutheran Camping Corporation, director of Camp Nawakwa, and wife of Trinity Pastor John Brock, will be consecrated as an ELCA deaconess at the Lower Susquehanna Synod Assembly worship service on Sunday, June 5, at 10:30 am.

All are welcome to attend the worship service at Messiah College's Parmer Hall in the High Center for the Worship and the Arts.

Youth Group plans June events

Despite canceling our talent show in May, our awesome YG has been super busy. And now YG is gearing up for summer 2016 and wants YOU to be involved. So check out these dates and come on out to these YG Jr. and Sr. High events:

- ✓ Sunday, June 19, through Saturday, June 25. Harrisburg Area Confirmation Camp at Camp Nawakwa. If you are going, you know the details of this event. See you there!
- ✓ Sunday, June 26. YG Pool Party at the Taylors' house from 2-6 pm. All food, drinks, and snacks are provided but, of course, any home-baked goodies are more than welcome! Bring friends, too. Plan on meeting at the Taylors' house—not at the church!

Jim Brommer wins Scouting award

The New Birth of Freedom Council of the Boy Scouts of America has awarded Trinity's Jim Brommer its Silver Beaver Award. That award, which is a huge honor, recognizes registered adult leaders of exceptional character who have provided distinguished service within a council.

Jim became a Scout in 1952 in Pine Grove, Pa., where he later achieved the rank of Eagle Scout. He earned numerous other Scouting awards and has held various leadership positions. Congratulations, Jim!

Get ready for our “Christmas in July” giving tree

The Giving Tree is coming to our Gathering Space for “Christmas in July” again this year as we celebrate those less fortunate. Remember, a mid-year gift is as welcome as a December one. There will be five benevolence ministries to choose from based on the ornament tag. Just “undecorate” the tree by removing an ornament and supplying the indicated gift.

- Coffee cup ornament: Your gift supports St. Patrick's Homeless Breakfast
- Purple ribbon ornament: Your gift supports a domestic violence organization
- A green house ornament: Your gift supports Delta Housing
- Fruit ornament: Your gift supports Churches Affiliated Child Care Center, Inc. (CACCC)
- Church ornament: Your gift supports our own members in need

Trinity is selling land in York County

Trinity is selling 28.5 acres of York County land that was donated several decades ago to develop a summer camp. Unfortunately, the topography is not camp-conducive. The address is Lot 1, Stone Jug Road, Wellsville; the listing agent is Brian Parrish of Bennett Williams Realty. MLS number is 21603662. Contact Trinity's Paul Hensel for more information. Any sales contract that would be presented would require the congregation's approval at a special meeting.

Letter to the Trinity Family

Thank you so much for all your prayers and concerns as I underwent knee replacement surgery and encountered complications as a result of the surgery. The visits from Bishop Edmiston and Pastor Brock, together with prayers and concerns from Pastor Horner and Pastor Easton, are certainly helping me as I am recuperating. The altar flowers added a bright and cheerful environment to my hospital room and also to our home. My sincere thank you to the lady who delivered the flowers, together with a prayer shawl and bulletins. My prayers are for the many hands who make these shawls. They have been very meaningful and useful during my recuperation. Also, a special thanks to the men's bible study group, who meet on Tuesday evenings in the church library, for their thoughts and prayers. As a new member of Trinity, I have been reassured and have personally witnessed our mission and the importance for concern to those who are facing illnesses. In closing, again many many thanks to all of the members of Trinity. God's blessings, my prayers and appreciation to all! --Terry Gastrock

Evangelism Team says thanks

Thanks to all who made our first Emergency Professionals Appreciation event a success. We put together and delivered 22 goodie bags (pictured) to our local responders, who were grateful for our outreach.

CD Ministry makes changes

Our CD Ministry ensures the recording of all worship services, weddings, and memorial (funeral) services. Folks wanting copies need simply to fill out a CD request form that is available on top of the card file in the library. In the past, copies of worship services were made and kept in the library, but so few copies were picked up that now they will be provided only upon request.

✠ Prayer concerns ✠ Lord, let us start the growing season by growing in service and love. ✠ Don't let us be too busy to love. ✠ Paul says, "Nothing matters except faith working by love." ✠ Lord, let your love run its full course in us. ✠ Grant us the grace to act lovingly without requiring the feelings of love first. ✠ We pray to recognize the needs of others. ✠ Our love flows through actions toward others. ✠ We pray to the good workers for your kingdom, Lord. ✠ Thank you for giving us so many opportunities to love. ✠ We know how dearly God loves us, "because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us."
